To the Public.—I beg leave to caution the white against an imposition practised upon them by seve-al unprincipled barkeopers in this city, who are using any settles, which contained my genuine Schanpps, for the pur-esse of vending their villanous and impure gia. Such persons are warned to desist, or their names will be uncess.

I would recommend those who take my Sohnapps under sedical advice, to purchase by the bottle from some respecte name of Schnapps belongs exclusively to my gin—all s are counterfeit. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

We were shown, the other day, a counterfeit of Wolfe's celebrated Schiedam Schnapps, and we learn that there is much of the spurious stuff offered for sale in Philadelphia. As a public journalist, we feel it our duty to record this fact, and to warn, at least, our own readers to be on their guard. The genuine "Wolfe's Schnapps" is a pure, unadulterated gin, while the hundreds of liquors called gin and especially the conterfeit of the "Schnapps" offered for sale, centain positively injurious intredients. The physicians prescribe the genuine "Wolfe," and it has proved beneficial in a large number of diseases. Its aromatic flavor is delicious.—[From the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian of May 7, 1853.

"The Horn of Plenty" is to be found at ADAMS' Hosiery and Under Garment Manufactory, No. 591 Broadway, so far as under garments, gloves, and hosiery, are concerned. The motto of this establishment is a good one:—"The very best goods at prices generally paid for la-ferior qualities, and money refunded in ease the goods do not answer the purpose for which they were bought."

The great Living Panorama which a fair day brings into Breadway, is worth an ocean voyage to see; and it is scarcely less wonderful to see how regularly they stop at HOOT'S, No. 363, to procure his patent Crayon Daguerrestypes.

The Greatest Picture Factory in the World is REES & CO'S twenty-five cent daguerrectype establishment. 259 Broadway, where 300 fine portraits are finished faily, both large and smill, in a style of excellence and obseques not surpassed in the world of art. The rooms are visited by thousands.

"Aldermante Interference and Knox's Hats."

No attempt on the part of the Aldermen of this city has been made to interfere with the unexampled sales of KNOX'S summer style of hat; on the contrary, the majority of their patrons unite in praising the general appearance of its style, quality elegance, durability and eco 10my. Price only $1.

The Season is suggestive of the Light, Elegant, tennish Rocky Mountain Beavers, which spring into existence in perfection in the manufactory of Kanx & James, and the demand for them caused by the heat of the past few days, has been exceedingly large, resulting in profit to these young and skilful hatters and comfort to their customers, KNOX & JAMES are the proprietors and managing spirits of the "Prescott Hat Store," on the corner of Broadway and Spring street.

Gentlemen's Summer Hats, in great variety and very choice, consisting of the white, drab, cream, and French gray beaver, napped and plain. Straw hats by the thousand. Canton, sennets and panamas very select. Soft felt hats to suit everybody. WARNOCKS, Hatters, No. 275 Broadway, Irving House.

Jewelry and Fancy Goods —Osborne, Board-N & TOWNSEND are now open at the new store, No. Broadway, corner of Spring street, where they hope to their former customers. They have added their for r stock a large sesortment of real and intakion jowlry, the newest and latest patterns, together with clocks, onces, and every variety of fancy goods, selected in Eu-pe by one of the firm.

The Sole Question.—Say what we will about the opening of the Crystal Palace, or the success of the Hippodrome, the great question of the day—one all important, and which addresses itself directly to man's understanding—is where he may obtain the most elegant boots and shoes.

Mr. EDWIN A. BROOKS, who has already attained the highest fame as a skilful artist and a neat workman, has just opened a new tore at No. 578 Broadway, where he has the most tasty and elegant specimens of adornments for the human foot to be found in this city. Mr. B. as all his old friends will remember, has a store at No. 159 Futton street, which he keeps constantly well stocked; but, in order to accommodate many of his customers, who have moved up town, he has opened a new one at the above place. It is an ernament as well as a convenience to that part of the city. he has opened a new one at the above place. nent as well as a convenience to that part of the city.

Confined to the House, not by Sickness, but by an immense amount of business. This is the case with H. L. FOSTER, wholes ale and retail clothier. 27 Cortlandt street, whe will be happy to exhibit to you his new spring styles of gentlemen's clothing, which are allowed to be first rate.

Se ye Clothed.—To be Properly Clothed, it only necessary to call on our friends, W. W. PARSELLS & O., No. 31 John street, corner of Nassan street, whose every tetic necessary to complete a gentleman's wardrobe may cound, of superior style and workmasship.

All Persons who Visit Burton's Theatre indulge in a hearty laugh at the economical Mrs. Toodles, who bought an old door plate engraved "Thompson" in the expectation that she might have a daughter who might probably marry a man of that name. But Mrs. Toodles was not half as silly as they who buy a sewing machine, at any price, which sews with two needles and leaves a ridge of thread on the under side of the seam. The only legitimate and perfect sewing machines are those which are exhibited and sold at No. 525 Broadway, by I. M. SINGER & CO.

Did you ever hear any person speak agalast the Perous Glass Fliter, after having used it? Many letters have been received, and much has been said in its praise, but none to its discredit. This is the season for its use. Try it. Sold at 316 Broadway.
